Where the twang of classic country meets the grit of Southern soul on Saturday, April 11, beginning at 7:30 p.m., from the stunning Ripley Chapel, live in person and live streamed!

Ripley Presents is pleased to welcome back Hank Wonder — a dynamic trio of musicians who return to Ripley Chapel with their special blend of songcraft and music making.

The Boston-based trio of Annie Bartlett (fiddle and viola), Darren Buck (vocals), and Michael Loria (guitar) first came together in 2013 and have since crafted their very own soulful blend of Americana: equal parts down home and gussied up.

In November 2016, Hank Wonder recorded its debut album with producer and multi-instrumentalist Charlie Rose (Elephant Revival, Barnstar). “Little Mysteries” soon emerged as a strong set of 12 originals – tales of Downeast canoe rides, fables of reckless children, and odes to fine bourbon.

Released in 2021 and with producer and multi-instrumentalist Za

helm, “Waylaid” features a stellar cast of guest musicians and vibrant harmonies.

Tickets are $20 General Admission in-person or live streamed, $5 student.

For more information about the concert, contact Jane Ring Frank, Minister of Worship and the Arts at 857-919-0983 or at jane@fcc-winchester.org IMPORTANT NOTE: Ripley Chapel can be found at First Congregational Church, Winchester, 21 Church St. The entry is located on the Vine Street side of the church. Please use the accessible ramp entrance, and Ripley Chapel will be directly to your right as you enter the building.
